How Alliant Calculates Your Balance: Alliant uses a method called Average Daily Balance, which includes new purchases, cash advances, and balance transfers. See the Finance Charges section in the Alliant Cashback Visa Signature Card Agreement for details.

Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in the Billing Rights section of the Alliant Cashback Visa Signature Card Agreement.

Your Annual Percentage Rate (APR) may vary quarterly and is based on the Prime Rate. Your APR is determined by adding a margin of: 8.99%-18.99% on purchases and balance transfers, 16.99%-20.99% on cash advances, and 21.99% on Penalty APR to the Prime Rate for the Alliant Cashback Visa Signature Card. The Prime Rate Index used to determine your APR is the highest rate published in The Wall Street Journal during the last business day of the previous calendar quarter (March, June, September and December), and changes are effective as of the first day of your next billing cycle. Any increase in the prime rate may increase your interest and minimum payment. (See the Alliant Cashback Visa Signature Card Agreement for complete details.)

Introductory rate and incentive offers, including cash back, are not available to those members who had an outstanding balance on a closed Alliant Visa credit card account and/or had an Alliant Visa credit card within the last six months. If you are in an introductory rate promotion period, you are not eligible to transfer Visa accounts until the introductory rate promotion has expired.

ALLIANT CASHBACK VISA® SIGNATURE CARD PROGRAM SUMMARY

Alliant Cashback Visa Signature Card Agreement Summary: Your APR is based on meeting Alliant Credit Union’s criteria for creditworthiness. Alliant will review your credit and employment history and any other information permitted by law to process your application. The credit line on this account will be determined after a review of your application by Alliant and will be based on various factors, including income. Alliant maintains the right to not open this account if: a) the information provided is incomplete, inaccurate or cannot be verified, or if you do not meet Alliant’s standards for creditworthiness; b) your name and/or mailing address on the credit application have been altered; c) the income you reported on the application is insufficient to support the opening of this account; or d) you do not meet Alliant membership eligibility requirements. You have the right to review your credit history by contacting the credit reporting agencies.

Factors we may consider for determining whether and how to change your terms include, but are not limited to, a late payment or an extension of credit that exceeds the credit limit, the frequency and severity of defaults and other indications of risk on accounts with Alliant Credit Union and other creditors. To the extent allowed by law, the new terms will affect all outstanding balances. If we increase your APRs for any reason other than an increase in the Prime Rate, the new APRs will apply only to new credit granted after the new terms are effective. If the change in terms affects your credit card or debit card account or if you request a copy of the change in writing, we will notify you of the change in writing.
